Health worker arrested in Rajasthan

Jaipur, Mar 16 (PTI):

A health worker posted in Rajasthan's Dausa district was arrested and his services were terminated for allegedly spreading fake news about the coronavirus, police said on Monday.

Anil Tank, a contractual employee who worked as a senior treatment supervisor in Mahuwa, was found circulating fake news related to positive number of COVID-19 cases being found in the state and isolation wards being set up to treat the patients, they said.

Mahuwa circle Deputy Superintendent of Police Shankar Lal said Tank was arrested for his statement conducing to public mischief.

Dausa Chief Medical and Health Officer Pooranmal Meena said, The employee was terminated from the service for spreading 'rumour on social media'.

As a rehabilitation measure, the Petitioner has asked for a direction to be issued to the Delhi Government to pay adequate compensation to all the riot victims as per a scheme which is similar to the scheme providing compensation to the victims of the 1984 riots.

Case booked against 79 for organising mass reception

Kochi, Mar 16 (PTI):

The police on today registered a case against 79 people for organising a mass reception for a popular reality show contestant on his arrival at the Cochin International Airport despite restrictions on such gatherings in view of the coronavirus threat.

Those booked are four named accused and 75 others, the police said. The reality show participant and his supporters allegedly created chaos at the airport on Sunday by violating the directive issued by the government to prevent spread of novel coronavirus in the state. The Nedumbassery police on Monday charged them under Sections 143, 147, 149, 188 and 283 of Indian Penal Code (IPC), which broadly deals with unlawful assembly, rioting, disobeying orders of a public servant and causing obstruction to public way and thereby causing danger for the general public. Police also alleged they violated a High Court ruling that there should be no procession around 500 metres from the airport.

Ernakulam district Collector S Suhas slammed the behaviour of the crowd at the airport premises at a time when all sections of the society were on high alert over the spread of novel coronavirus.

Two people, including a UK national tested positive for COVID-19 in Kerala on Sunday, taking the total number of affected to 21 in the state as the government launched a 'break the chain' initiative to prevent the spread of the virus.
